

A+ FOOD TRAINING

NEW LAWS FOR FOODSERVICE WORKERS IN NON-RESTAURANTS

Get your employees certified with our training programs

All food handlers employed in non-restaurants must take a Food Handler course and be certified by July 1, 2016. A food handler is a food employee who works with unpackaged food, food equipment or utensils, or food-contact surfaces. Non-restaurants include hospitals, nursing homes, schools, day care centers, and retail food stores such as grocery stores and convenient stores.

We offer food training courses that are approved by the Illinois Department of Public Health.

- Training can be conducted at our location or at your establishment
- Discounts are available for groups of individuals
- Training can be conducted in English or Spanish
